Yes I Can, Inc. provides various success events. We are not associated with any other organizations, political groups, schools, churches or denominations. This event, "The Great Adventure," will have speakers teaching success principles. The speakers are welcome to talk about their faith as a principle of their success. There will be no altar calls, requests for money, or pressure to join any groups. This event is for any age, but it is designed for Jr. High through college level ages. The program is a three hour program with one break. Elementary aged children should be accompanied by an adult.
